Nicodemus was religious and respected, yet still lost—how does his story challenge me to look beyond appearances and examine the true condition of my heart?

Jesus said, "You must be born again." How do I personally respond to that command—do I see it as optional, confusing, or essential?

Ephesians 2:1 says we are “dead in trespasses and sins.” In what ways has God brought me from spiritual death to life?

Ezekiel 36 and Jeremiah 31 promise cleansing and a new heart. How do I see God fulfilling those promises in my life today?

Jesus compared the Spirit's work to the wind—unseen but undeniable. What evidence of the Spirit's movement can I point to in my own life?

Psalm 51:10 records David's prayer, "Create in me a clean heart, O God." How can I make that same prayer part of my daily walk with the Lord?
